I WILL PREACH BOLDLY ABOUT THE GRACE OF THE LORD!

Base Verse: Acts 14:3 NLT

Paul and Barnabas continue to do the special work God called them to do. In each place they went, there were two kinds of people. People who believed the message and became saved, and people who called them liars, threatened them and chased them out of their towns. In Acts 14, they traveled to a place called Iconium. The same thing happened here. Some people believed and some people were against them. Through all the danger and hard times, God's special workers never quit preaching to people about God's good grace to those who believe. God has called all of us to be His special workers as well. So, let's preach boldly about God's good grace no matter what comes against us!

Some people might not want to hear about Jesus, and that's okay; we need to respect their choices. But remember, we won't know if someone wants to hear the good news unless we give it a try! So don't let fear make you shy! Be brave like Paul and Barnabas, and keep sharing God's Word with confidence and joy!
